Why Switzerland.

Small country, big ideas.

The meeting of minds: education, innovation and the exchange of ideas are the secret of Switzerland's success.

With few natural resources, Switzerland owes its prosperity to investment in people. A highly skilled, multilingual workforce, world-class research institutions, an emphasis on innovation and international collaboration, the rapid transfer of expertise into business products: this is fertile ground for new ideas. Switzerland provides an ideal location at the heart of Europe for making contacts, finding project partners, acquiring and exchanging know-how, doing business and gaining access to new markets.

The power of innovation:

- No other country invests so much per capita in pure research and new technology
- Switzerland has produced more Nobel Prizewinners than any country, relative to population
- Ideas breed success: Switzerland ranks first in the Global Competitiveness Index (weforum.org)

Centres of excellence.

International organisations.

Switzerland's tradition of open-mindedness and neutrality has led hundreds of international organisations from the UN to world sports bodies and NGOs to make their base here: ideal territory for exploring innovative solutions to challenges and promoting global cooperation.

Global forum:

- World's most active centre for multilateral diplomacy
- The Red Cross movement originated and is based here
- Visit the Olympic Museum in Lausanne, home of the IOC

Commodity trading.

Located at the meeting point of many historic trading routes, Switzerland is a major hub for trade in metals, oil and gas, coffee, sugar and cereals. Today it is home to some of the biggest players on the global market – as well as giants such as Nestlé, the world's largest food company.

Cleantech.

Pioneering policies in environmental protection have made Switzerland a leading location for the development and marketing of clean-technology products and services worldwide. Strict norms governing the Swiss market ensure an excellent chance of securing entry into export markets.

Eco-friendly Switzerland:

- Tops Yale's Environmental Performance Index (epi.yale.edu)
- Home to Solar Impulse, the most ambitious solar airplane ever
- Explore the spectacular Grimselwelt hydropower complex

Pharmaceuticals, biotechnology & medtech.

Newly developed technologies and inventions are better protected in Switzerland than in any other country: hence the global strength of the Swiss pharmaceutical industry. Rapid and efficient transfer of know-how, meanwhile, is behind the success of the fast-growing medical technology sector, founded on precision engineering skills that originated in the watchmaking industry. Medtech meets biotechnology at western Switzerland's "Health Valley", one of Europe's top three centres of research.

The science of life:

- The greatest density of biotech companies in the world
- Swiss firsts: organ transplants, cortisone, antihistamines, LSD
- Visit Novartis Campus, Basel (research, production, world HQ)

Information & communication technology.

A high level of technical skills has made Switzerland a world leader in IT: Siemens, Microsoft, HP, Orange, Dell, eBay, T-Systems and Reuters have all made major investments. Switzerland is also a pioneer in nanotechnology – the manipulation of matter at the molecular scale.

Shaping the future:

- European HQ of Google, "IBM Research – Zurich" facility
- Modern computer mice developed here: Logitech, 1980s
- Visit CERN – where the World Wide Web was invented

Financial and insurance.

Economic, political and monetary stability twinned with an innovative approach to developing new products has made Switzerland a groundbreaking global financial and insurance centre. Zurich, Geneva, Basel and Lugano are the hubs, based in different language regions and serving the whole world.

A wealth of innovative venues.

Switzerland invests billions of francs every year in facilities for meetings, where you can look forward to full professional backup, specialist expertise and excellent value for money. The choice is vast: we'll help you find the venue that suits your event perfectly.

Congress centres: state-of-the-art style.

The futuristic SwissTech Convention Center on the prestigious EPFL campus in Lausanne, for example, offers an inspiring platform for encounter at the heart of a key research hub.

Hotel chains: cosmopolitan spirit.

All the well-known chains are present in Switzerland, tuned to the needs of international visitors. The new InterContinental Davos is a popular option for guests at the World Economic Forum: an eye-catching, high-tech, environmentally friendly hotel with a cosy chalet feel and an atmosphere of elegance and privacy.

Period charm: a sense of history.

Switzerland's grand hotels recall the pioneering days of alpine travel, a time of new ideas, grand schemes and infinite optimism. Expect refined elegance, immaculate service and all modern comforts – as at the Gstaad Palace in Gstaad, the Badrutt's Palace in St. Moritz and the Victoria-Jungfrau in Interlaken.

Summit meetings: fresh perspectives.

On a mountain, you see the world around you in a new way. Venues range from wooden cabins and villages of igloos with whirlpool baths to a subterranean fort and pinnacle hotels – such as the Pilatus-Kulm at an altitude of 2,132 metres, with its ultra-modern new business centre and spectacular views.

MySwitzerland.com/meetings, Webcode

Museums: exclusive and original settings.

Switzerland is home to an unparalleled concentration of world-class museums; many are available for private hire. At the Swiss Museum of Transport, you can hold meetings or host dinners surrounded by vintage cars, steam locomotives or spacecraft; the conference centre reveals fine lake-and-mountain views.

MySwitzerland.com/meetings, Webcode

Farm fun: country creativity.

Swiss farms provide stimulating surroundings for creative get-togethers. The Jucker Farms in the Zurich region offer entertaining team-building activities including baking workshops, making scarecrows, ice carving, building sand sculptures, and the popular “Farm Olympics”.

MySwitzerland.com/meetings, Webcode

Skill centres: meet and learn.

Develop new skills at meeting venues within production sites or museums. Centro Dannemann, a beautifully restored cigar factory on subtropical Lake Maggiore, offers workshops on subjects from fine fragrances and chocolate-making to mixology and cookery.

More than just meetings.

Great scenic and cultural variety in a compact area and short transfers maximise your event's impact. A snowy mountaintop in the morning, lunch on a palm-lined lakeshore, an afternoon city visit and an international festival in the evening: anything is possible.

Culture: world-class attractions.

Globally renowned museums and art collections, dazzling modern architecture, music festivals everywhere from concert halls to lakeshores and a Roman arena, international stars, top trade shows, food fairs and wine festivals: you can easily incorporate visits, guided tours and performances into any event.

Team-building: authentic adventure.

Switzerland's spectacular natural landscapes lend themselves to a vast choice of activities under expert guidance. From white-water rafting to GPS treasure hunts, from making cheese on an alpine farm to building an igloo (and even sleeping in it), all offer a chance to test personal boundaries and build team spirit.

MySwitzerland.com/meetings, Webcode

N49169

Behind the scenes: expert insights.

Let specialists show you the view from inside... Discover top negotiation strategies on a visit to a UN agency, explore the world of tomorrow at a leading research centre, see the inner workings of a high-tech production facility – or test your own skills as you assemble a precision watch or make your own Swiss Army Knife.

A taste of variety.

A creative approach to social gatherings will ensure your event is talked about for a long time. Our experts will show you how to make best use of the country's spectacular scenery, rich historical heritage and pioneering means of transport for unique meals and nights out.

Swiss charm: from chalets to castles.

The best fondue? One you have made yourself in a mountain cabin, reached on snowshoes by torchlight – followed by a thrilling toboggan ride down. Or how about a candlelit banquet in a castle – the 13th-century lakeside Château de Chillon, perhaps – complete with soldiers in armour, jugglers and minstrels?

Meals on the move: the sky's the limit.

Make use of a transfer by hosting a gourmet meal en route – in a historic railway dining car, for example. You could banquet on the deck of a 100-year-old paddle steamer, provide a buffet on a vintage tram during a city tour, or serve dinner on an ultra-modern cable car as it glides up a mountain: the choice is vast.

Rent a village: the perfect backdrop.

Gandria on the palm-lined shores of Lake Lugano, the glacier village of Engelberg with its ornate monastery, the fortified medieval town of Gruyères with its fairy-tale castle... Fill the alleys, streets and squares with musicians and dancers and serve the finest local delicacies for an evening no one will forget!

Ticino: on the sunny side.

Ticino is Switzerland's suntrap, a region of opulent delights. The Mediterranean climate on the southern side of the Alps has given rise to luxuriant gardens, fine wines and a wonderfully varied cuisine. Meetings and incentives find fertile ground here, where Swiss efficiency meets Italian spontaneity.

Destinations.

On a human scale.

Small in size, big in influence:

Switzerland's cities enjoy a disproportionately high international profile.

From banking centres such as Zurich, Geneva and Lugano to Davos with its World Economic Forum, the destinations on the following pages all thrive on their global connections. Their manageable scale and minimal transfer times ensure meetings are stress-free; even larger cities have pristine nature on the doorstep. The mountain destinations are often historic ski resorts full of charm, promising a warm welcome year-round.

Global leaders:

- Zurich, Geneva and Bern rank among the world's top ten cities for quality of life (mercer.com)
- Public transport included in hotel overnight in most cities; in the mountains, free lifts in spring/summer/autumn
- Alpine destinations are at above-average altitude: snow-sure in winter, refreshing in summer

Bern: a great place to meet.

Bern's secret is its relaxed atmosphere – perhaps due to the Swiss capital's compact size, its unique charm, or its combination of visionary architecture and medieval Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Property. In any case: state-of-the-art facilities and a central location make Bern the ideal place for any function.

Your natural choice.

High quality of life, pristine landscapes, a long tradition of hospitality:

travel in Switzerland is straightforward and supremely enjoyable.

Switzerland is proud to set high standards. Its landscapes, from glittering glaciers to alpine pastures and palm-fringed islands, enjoy unparalleled levels of protection. Even the water in rivers and lakes is usually clean enough to drink. Equally impressive are the accommodation and leisure facilities – and the warm welcome extended to guests in this cosmopolitan and charming country.

Precious heritage:

- Three main geographical areas: the Jura mountains, the Alps and the Swiss Plateau in between
- 14 % of Swiss territory is protected in the form of national or natural parks
- 12 UNESCO World Heritage Properties/ biosphere reserves of “outstanding universal value”

Climate.

Conditions vary greatly depending on altitude and local topography. The climate on the Montreux Riviera or in Ticino, for example, is virtually Mediterranean, while the country's highest peaks – including 48 mountains above 4,000 metres – are capped with snow and ice year-round. We can advise on suitable clothing for different itineraries and activities. For winter visits, note that even historic hotels and other buildings are well insulated and cosy.

Money.

Currency is the Swiss franc (CHF), one of the most stable in the world; as you would expect from one of the world's leading financial centres, money transactions are smooth and straightforward. ATMs accept cards from around the world, but it is advisable to check with the card issuer before travel. Money can be changed widely, credit cards are accepted virtually everywhere. A service charge is normally included in restaurant and hotel bills and in taxi fares. Tips are not expected, but appreciated.

Passport / visa regulations.

For information on visas, work permits and other business matters, please contact your nearest Swiss embassy or consulate, or visit www.bfm.admin.ch

Value added tax.

The Swiss government is known for its business-friendly approach; for example, VAT rates are the lowest in Europe at 8%. Usually, foreign companies can reclaim all VAT paid in Switzerland direct from the Swiss Federal Tax Administration (FTA), quickly and easily. We'll show you how.

Shopping.

Typical Swiss ingenuity, precision and quality are evident in a wide range of local products, from high-tech outdoor leisure equipment to luxurious embroidery from St.Gallen – not to mention practical Swiss Army Knives, fine jewellery and a vast choice of watches in all price ranges. Visits to production facilities usually include the opportunity to buy on-site – anything from organic mountain produce such as alpine cheese to exquisite chocolates.

Security, health, insurance.

Switzerland is famously clean and safe; medical care is among the best in the world. If by any chance you need treatment here, you are in the best hands. We strongly recommend that all visitors have personal travel insurance, including coverage for personal accident, sickness, loss or damage to luggage and personal effects, and cancellation.

Ingenuity serving functionality

Modern, innovative, ingenious and easy to use: these are the standout attributes of the new Victorinox Swiss Army Chrono Classic watch. The newest version of this perennial bestseller has undergone a full metamorphosis, both aesthetically and technically. First and foremost, its new quartz movement transforms it, with a double press of the crown, from a classic watch with perpetual calendar into a chronograph accurate to 1/100th of a second. In a first for this type of movement, the 1/100th of a second is displayed numerically, by means of two rotating discs.

Swiss Army Knife

The success story of Victorinox began with the "Officer's Knife" in 1897. The latest generation of the world-famous originals continues the virtues of yesterday, while nevertheless still meeting the demands of today with regard to functionality, user-friendliness and quality. The extensive range of models is continually being revised, and you are therefore sure to find the right "Officer's Knife" for every application. The common element between them all is their proverbial reliability and the perfection down to detail.

Super-lightweight and highly practical, they are popular with outdoor activity fans and adrenalin addicts – but are also ideal for everyday use.
