Bernina Express, Alp Grüm, Poschiavo, Graubünden

70% incline, 100% adventure

The Bernina Express is the perfect all-rounder, seamlessly linking the cold north to the warm south. It smoothly negotiates every climb while offering one of the world's most unforgettable train journeys.

The scenery is cinematically beautiful as the Bernina Express traverses the 65-m-high Landwasser Viaduct, the Rhaetian Railway's most distinctive landmark. On the epic journey from Chur to Tirano, you'll head through 55 tunnels and over 196 bridges. The journey will hold you captive with highlights like the Montebello Curve, with its view of the Bernina massif, the Morteratsch Glacier, the trio of lakes Lej Pitschen, Lej Nair und Lago Bianco, Alp Grüm, and the circular viaduct at Brusio. Now you see why the Bernina/Albula line has long been the heart of the UNESCO World Heritage Property. In summer, why not extend your journey by taking the Bernina Express Bus from Tirano to Lugano?

Excursion tips

- ① Arosa Bahn – it takes an hour from Chur to Arosa. In just 26 km, the train negotiates more than 1,000 m of ascent
- ② Albula Railway Museum – more than 600 exhibits spanning over a century of railway history, including one of the last “crocodile” trains
- ③ Gandria – a picturesque little town at the foot of Monte Brè; don't miss a visit to the Swiss Customs Museum
- ④ Monte San Salvatore – one of the most beautiful viewpoints on Lake Lugano

From Lugano/Locarno to Lucerne. Wilhelm Tell Express

Wilhelm Tell Express near Brunnen, Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region

On track to Switzerland's birthplace

This panoramic journey by train and boat whisks you to the birthplace of the Swiss nation, where you'll discover the great history of a small country.

It's hard to say what is the most beautiful stretch of the Wilhelm Tell Express. Some might say it's the train ride on the world-famous Gotthard Line, which goes through many spiral tunnels, ranging from 200m to 1,100m, and heads through the 15 km Gotthard Tunnel, which opened in 1882. During the summer months, you'll have a personal travel companion in the first-class panorama carriage to Flüelen. From there, you'll take the historic paddle steamer, passing such historic landmarks as Tell's Chapel, Rütli meadow, and the Schiller memorial stone. A delicious menu is served in the elegant onboard restaurant.

Excursion tips

- ① Swissminiatur – Switzerland on a small scale; admire the detailed model houses, landmarks, trains and boats
- ② Monte Brè – the sunniest mountain in Switzerland commands far-reaching views to Monte Rosa and the Bernese and Valais Alps
- ③ Brissago Islands – subtropical garden paradise on Lago Maggiore
- ④ The three medieval castles of Bellinzona – once a fortified barrier at the gateway to the Alps, now a UNESCO World Heritage property
- ⑤ Titlis – the world's first revolving cable car and eternal snow

From Interlaken to Jungfrauoch. Jungfrauoch round trip

Jungfrau Railway, Kleine Scheidegg-Jungfrauoch, Bernese Oberland

High on the Top of Europe

There's no better way to round out your Switzerland trip than with a visit to Jungfrauoch. Here you're that bit closer to heaven – at 3,454 m, the "Top of Europe" is the highest train station in Europe.

The journey is an experience in itself, with the train twisting through the solid cliff face and glacial ice. Seven out of the nine kilometres of track are in a tunnel that penetrates the heart of the mountains of Eiger and Mönch. The train stops off at Eigerwand and Eismeer, where panoramic windows command a tremendous mountain vista. From the summit, you'll enjoy uninterrupted views of the Aletsch Glacier, part of the UNESCO World Heritage property Swiss Alps Jungfrau-Aletsch – and the majestic Alpine panorama. Welcome to the high-Alpine wonderland where there is snow 365 days a year. For more insight into the history of the Jungfrau Railway, visit Alpine Sensation.

Excursion tips

- ① Harder Kulm – Interlaken's local mountain is the starting point for a number of walks
- ② Boat trips on Lakes Thun and Brienz – stirring views of the Bernese Oberland mountains
- ③ Trümmelbach Falls – ten glacier waterfalls plunge through the heart of the mountain
- ④ Grindelwald First – the ultimate Alpine adventure: First Cliff Walk, First Flyer, Trotti scooter-bikes
- ⑤ Schynige Platte – take the cog railway to the summit for a different perspective on Eiger, Mönch and Jungfrau

From Zermatt to Gornergrat. Gornergrat Bahn

Gornergrat Bahn, Zermatt-Gornergrat, Valais

The Matterhorn experience

Get up close and personal with the Matterhorn! The cog railway trundles up to Gornergrat, where peaks reach as far as the eye can see.

Nobody – not even the locals – can resist the pulling power of the mighty Matterhorn. The striking pyramid-shaped mountain is one of Switzerland's most visible icons.

But there's more to see than meets the eye – the year-round viewing platform gazes out across 29 four-thousanders. Europe's highest open-air cog railway brings you to the summit in just 33 minutes, negotiating bridges, cutting through galleries and tunnels and passing through wildly beautiful forests of larch and Swiss stone pine.

Excursion tips

- ① Gorner Gorge – a footpath over narrow bridges and up steps as well as a via ferrata (fixed-rope route) leads through this deep ravine
- ② Zermatlantis – an insight into Zermatt's history at the Matterhorn Museum
- ③ Sunnegga – a gentle walk from the Alp to the gourmet hamlet of Findeln
- ④ Lake Riffel – peaceful mountain idyll; the reflection of the Matterhorn in the lake is a sight to behold
- ⑤ Rothorn – view of the highest mountains in the Valais Alps

From Lucerne to Rigi. Rigi round trip

Vitznau-Rigi Kulm, Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region

Views fit for royalty

Get ready for the royal treatment. This round trip unravels some of Switzerland's most captivating landscapes – right up to Rigi, the so-called “Queen of the Mountains”.

From Lucerne, you'll glide across Lake Lucerne by boat to Vitznau, where Europe's oldest cog railway climbs up to Rigi Kulm, which is the highest peak in the Rigi massif at around 1,800 m. En route you could stop off at the Mineralbad spa, designed by star architect Mario Botta. At Rigi Kulm, a 360° panorama awaits, with views reaching across the Swiss Plateau to the Black Forest, the Vosges and the snow-capped Alps. You'll never want to leave, we swear.

Excursion tips

- ① Chapel Bridge and Water Tower – Lucerne's icon is the oldest covered wooden bridge in Europe
- ② Swiss Museum of Transport – the history of transport hands-on
- ③ Stanserhorn – vintage funicular and futuristic CabriO® cable car, with an open-air upper deck, to the summit
- ④ Pilatus – the Golden Round Trip with a boat trip to Alpnachstad, followed by a fantastic panorama in the world's steepest cog railway (48 % incline) and the new Dragon Ride cable car
- ⑤ Goldau Nature & Animal Park – a haven for deer, wolves, lynx and other wild animals

From Bern to Locarno. Lötschberg Mountain Route and Centovalli

RegioExpress Lötschberger, Luogelkin Viaduct near Hochtenn, Valais

Switzerland's most beautiful detours

Sometimes the winding road is the way to go. The BLS-Lötschberger and Centovalli Railways take you on detours to incredible views and attractions.

The Swiss like straight lines, but this scenic journey is anything but. The ride in the RegioExpress Lötschberger from Bern to Brig does not head through the Lötschberg Base Tunnel, but over a mountain route more than a century old. From Brig, it's just a short hop to Domodossola, where the Centovalli Railway chugs on to Locarno. On the approximately 50km narrow gauge line, there is plenty to see and admire – around 83 bridges and viaducts, light-dappled chestnut forests and vines heavy with Ticinese Merlot grapes. This wine is best tasted on one of the many walks that thread through the region. Cheers!

Excursion tips

- ① Bern's Old Town (UNESCO World Heritage property) – don't miss a stroll through the arcades, one of the longest covered shopping miles in the world
- ② Niesen – scale the pyramid-shaped peak on foot or by funicular
- ③ Stockalpers Palace, Brig – the landmark of Upper Valais
- ④ Intragna – the main village in the Centovalli impresses with its 80-m-high railway viaduct and Ticino's highest church tower
- ⑤ Verzasca Valley – jade-green water, polished cliffs and boulders, and the highlight of the double-arched Roman bridge in Lavertezzo

From Neuchâtel through Jura. Jura round trip

IC tilting train near Ligerz, Jura & Three-Lakes

The watch-making tour

Switzerland has been synonymous with watch-making for centuries – and its watches are world-renowned. But where exactly are they made? Not in the cities, but in the gently rolling hills of the Jura.

On this scenic journey, you'll visit the most important watch-making towns in Switzerland, while unwinding with enticing views of vast lakes, forests and the gently undulating landscapes of Jura.

The trip takes you from Neuchâtel and La Chaux-de-Fonds to Saignelégier, Biel and Delémont, the capital of the canton of Jura, with a beautifully restored Old Town. En route you'll pass through the Three-Lakes region, which encompasses lakes Biel/Bienne, Murten and Neuchâtel. At the southern tip of Lake Biel is St Peter's Island, whose beauty once inspired Swiss philosopher and writer Jean-Jacques Rousseau.

Excursion tips

- ① Laténium – a journey through space and time back to the origins of the human race in the archaeological museum
- ② Areuse Gorge – wild Jura at its romantic best at this sheer-sided ravine
- ③ Creux du Van – a circular hike to a formidable natural rock arena in Val-de-Travers
- ④ La Chaux-de-Fonds International Museum of Horology – the world's biggest watch and clock museum
- ⑤ Three-Lakes round trip – a boat trip on lakes Biel, Murten and Neuchâtel

Pure Alpine romance

Discover four of the most striking Swiss Alpine pass roads in a day on this scenic bus trip, which negotiates 8,000 m of altitude in total. Brace yourself for the ultimate Alpine road trip.

On the Grimsel Pass, you'll trundle past glittering reservoirs and enjoy arresting views. The Nufenen Pass, Switzerland's highest mountain pass road open to traffic, gets pulses racing.

The Gotthard, nicknamed the "King of Mountain Passes", has been one of the most important north-south trans-Alpine routes since Roman times. En route to the Susten Pass, the bus crosses no fewer than 25 bridges and passes through just as many tunnels. There's so much to explore on the entire route – for instance the famous Steingletscher (Stone Glacier).

Excursion tips

- ① Brienzer Rothorn – a steam train and a blast from the past; the mountain track was never electrified
- ② Ballenberg Open-Air Museum – original buildings, old livestock breeds and traditional crafts
- ③ Reichenbach Falls – close-ups of the wild stream and the mighty, 120-m-high Reichenbach Falls
- ④ Aare Gorge – over tens of thousands of years, the Aare River has carved out this spectacular gorge that is 1.4 km long and up to 200 m deep
- ⑤ Grimselwelt – a world of hydropower, mountain lakes and reservoirs, with cable cars, hanging bridges and an underground power station

The themed routes.

Chocolate train between Montreux and Broc, Fribourg Region

Kambly Experience in Trubschachen, Bern Region

Show dairy Le Chalet, Château-d'Oex, Lake Geneva Region

For a travel experience to remember.

The themed routes are just as popular as the classic scenic journeys – whether it be the chocolate train, cheese train or the Kambly route.

The chocolate train

Relax as you travel first-class in a vintage carriage to a town where Swiss chocolate is made. Test the quality for yourself by sampling mouth-watering chocolates during a visit to the legendary chocolate factory Maison Cailler.

The cheese train

Get the inside scoop on the secrets of Swiss cheese-making as you travel in style in a vintage carriage. First up is a visit to a proper dairy, where the master cheese maker reveals the subtle nuances of the cheese-making process. Next, you'll enjoy a traditional cheese fondue in a homely setting. Work off the cheese by walking the trail to the Vieux Pays-d'Enhaut Museum.

Kambly round trip

Departing Interlaken, Lucerne or Bern, this round trip takes you past snow-capped mountains, deep blue lakes and idyllic farms. Round out the day with sweet treats at the Kambly Experience. This tour is ideally paired with a boat trip on Lake Brienz.

Gotthard Base Tunnel.

The new Gotthard Base Tunnel brings southern and northern Europe that bit closer to Switzerland. And the pioneering flat route through the Swiss Alps is a shining example of sustainable mobility.

Northern portal of the Gotthard Base Tunnel in Erstfeld, Uri

June 1882: Switzerland opens the world's longest railway tunnel

Switzerland was already making tracks in 1882 when it opened the Gotthard Tunnel, the world's longest railway tunnel. A feat of daring, the whole route passes through seven loop tunnels and over 205 bridges from German Switzerland to Ticino, taking in standouts like Wassen church, Schöllenen Gorge and the Devil's Bridge.

Late 2016: Switzerland once again opens the world's longest railway tunnel

Stretching 57 km, the new tunnel is a marvel of engineering, bringing Switzerland even closer to its neighbours. The trip through the Alps is set to take just 20 minutes, making the journey quicker, smoother and more comfortable.

The Gotthard route

The original Gotthard mountain route will co-exist with the Gotthard Base Tunnel. The combination of old and new roads will make the Gotthard region an unmissable Swiss public transport highlight. The contrast between the historic mountain route and the innovative flat line through the Alps is striking.

UNESCO World Heritage in Switzerland.

Switzerland's extraordinary diversity is reflected in its 11 UNESCO World Heritage properties, which celebrate the country's natural and cultural wonders. And the good news is you can reach them all by public transport.

1 Prehistoric Pile Dwellings around the Alps

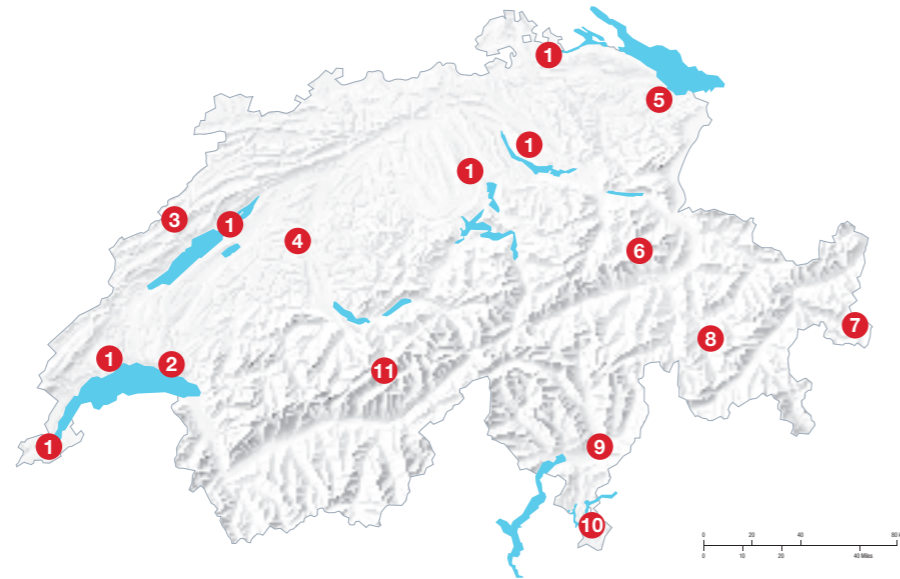

The serial of Prehistoric Pile Dwellings around the Alps comprises 111 pile dwellings in six different countries – 56 of which are in Switzerland. Numerous finds give insight into the period 5000 to 500 BC. www.palafittes.org

2 Lavaux, Vineyard Terraces

Lavaux is one of the largest wine-growing regions in Switzerland. Its cluster of 14 villages impressively reflects the cultural landscape, showing the development of the relationship between people and their environment. www.lavaux-unesco.ch

3 La Chaux-de-Fonds / Le Locle

Both towns are perfect examples of how industry and town planning can successfully be combined. Their architecture reveals the region's rich watch-making history and tradition of meticulous craftsmanship, and how watch-making influenced the towns' urban planning.
